THE OFFICIAL COUNTY JOURNAL.
THE OFFICIAL CITY JOURNAL.

Saturday, Nov. 17, 1900.

ABOUT TOWN.

Celestin Jagon Sons have received a fresh assortment of fine cigars.

Copy books, writing tablets and scratch pads to be found at THE HERALD office.

THE HERALD stationery department has just received a large consignment of blank books.

FOR SALE:—One large second hand fire proof safe, in first class condition. Will be sold cheap. Can be seen at Mrs. Geo. Krauss's store on Elizabeth street.

For fresh vegetable and garden seeds, candies, canned fruits, butter, canned meats, cheese and crackers, go to Leopoldo Ruiz, at Barreda old stand, Washington street.

A little blind Mexican boy named Juan Medina will leave Brownsville Monday for Austin, where he goes to enter the blind asylum. This little fellow, who is aged about thirteen, was a familiar figure on our streets for a time, selling fruit and ice cream, being led about by another boy. He will remain in the asylum as a charge of the State of Texas until he gains an education, and will also be taught a trade. He is considered hopelessly blind, having been so from birth.

The election returns as published in yesterday's HERALD were entirely accurate as to figures, but there was an error in the names of three precincts, over which the names should be transposed. These were the 18th, 19th and 20th, or El Arroyo, Punta del Monte and El Sanz. The names were written on one of the tally sheets in the same order as published in THE HERALD, and from this resulted the mistake, as they were set from that sheet. The other sheet had them in correct order, but the difference was not observed until too late. On account of this, the returns are published again today, with the error rectified.

PURELY PERSONAL.

Maj. Jon. B. Armstrong came in by private conveyance last evening from his ranch, the Chicago, where he had been spending several days coming from Austin. The major is the picture of health and his many old friends in Brownsville are delighted to see him again.

Mesdames Woodhouse and Kleiber and latter's little daughter Katharine arrived home last evening after an absence of several months in the North. Miss Mande Woodhouse also accompanied her mother home, having joined her in San Antonio from Saltillo, Mexico, where she spent the past summer with Miss Lynch. A. J. Woodhouse brought his mother and sister from Alice by ambulance.

The vote for presidential electors is given in one line each. That for governor alone, of the state ticket, is given, as that for other candidates for state officers ran about the same.

The amendment to the constitution received very little attention in this county, receiving 227 votes for and 43 against it. One vote was cast at Point Isabel, precinct 1, for Wm. McKinley for president.

The vote is given in tabulated form down to that for county commissioners, which was as follows:

Prec. 1—Atenogenes Oribe (no opposition) 149 votes.
Prec. 2—Jose Celaya (no opposition) 1871 votes.
Prec. 3—Sebastian Champlin, 182; Eugene Keller 257; latter's majority 75.
Prec. 4—E. B. Raymond (no opposition) 627.
Justices of the Peace and constables were elected as follows:

Prec. 1—Justice Peace—Jno. J. Egan, 113 votes; for constable Timoteo Solis 90. Neither had opposition.

Prec. 2—Justice Peace J. I. P. Franklin 1008; Alberto Besteiro 859—majority for Franklin 149.

For constable—Genaro Padron 977; Elicio del Valle, 888—majority for Padron 89.

Prec. 3—Justice Peace—W. S. Corkill 98; Ed Valls 208—Valls' majority 110. For constable—Juan Sayes 25; Vicente Rodriguez 207—Rodriguez' majority 182.

The highest vote received by a single candidate was that of W. J. Russell dem., for representative, which was 3119. Mr. Russell had no opposition. Taking this as the full voting strength of the county as polled in this election, it shows a slight decrease in the voting population since 1898, when the total vote of the county was 3159, being a decrease this year of forty votes. Mr. Russell's vote was slightly in excess of the combined vote for any other office for which there were opposing candidates. The next highest vote was that received by Augustin Celaya for treasurer, who had no opponent and received 3117 votes.

R. B. Craiger, candidate for representative against F. W. Seabury, made the race, not as a republican as stated in THE HERALD's first report, but as an independent democrat.

The Herald Is Democratic.

A prominent local republican has been quoted to the editor as scoring THE HERALD heavily on account of its supporting the democratic candidates in the recent election, when as the gentleman quoted said: "The only decent people here who support THE HERALD are republicans." Furthermore the same speaker added that he intended to establish a republican paper to compete with THE HERALD. The editor must plead guilty to having said what he could in favor of the democratic party, since he has affiliated with that party all his life, nor does he believe that his republican friends would have any respect for him, if he should desert his party and go over to the republicans at this day. It cannot be charged, however, that THE HERALD has indulged in "offensive partisanship" or given expression to any abuse of the republican party; in fact, if our republican friends should compare this paper with other democratic papers, they would find THE HERALD to be extremely conservative in its expression. As to establishing a republican paper, that, of course, is at anyone's pleasure, but it may be remarked that there is no town in this section which supports a republican paper. Laredo always gives republican majorities, but its one English paper is extremely democratic. A republican paper was published there awhile but fell through, although Laredo probably has more republicans who read English than the republican and democratic English speaking population here combined will number.

RETURNS TO WASHINGTON.

Hon. Rudolph Kleberg returned to Washington this morning to join his family and to be in readiness for the opening session of congress. He goes back with a sweeping endorsement at the polls, under the circumstances one of the most complimentary votes ever given a Texas congressman. Mr. Kleberg has been faithful and diligent in the discharge of his official duties and the people have fittingly shown their appreciation of his good work.—Cuero Star.
